The Weather To-day.
Fair, warmer, light west winds.

Work of a Very Horse Thief.—The police are looking high and low for Joseph B. Wilson, who is wanted for stealing a pair of horses and harness valued at $150 from Thomas B. Martin, a farmer. Martin brought the animal to the city yesterday and had them impounded in a livery stable on Twelfth street. Wilson, who had formerly been employed by Martin, called at the stable last night and told the proprietor he had come to see the horses for the owner. They were surrendered to him and he forthwith sold them to Eliza Bates, a horse dealer, of 215 Fourth and a-half street northwest, for $25. Martin finally located the horses at Bates' place and recovered them. Policeman Brown is out on Wilson's trail.

Eighty-five Members Enrolled.—At the meeting of the Protective Street Railway Union held in Costello's Hall yesterday, eighty-five new members were enrolled and some minor business was transacted. There were a total of 100 men from the Metropolitan and Eckington lines in attendance, but they refused to vote for any company the new members. They are struggling from the Metropolitan and Eckington roads who insisted to join the union before for fear of losing their positions.

Disorderly Witness Fined.—Richard A. Davis, a colored witness in the "Brooklyn" Moore livery case, created a scene of great disorder in the police court yesterday, and was arrested by Police Officer. He was fined $10 by Judge Kimball.

Beard Not "Shot to Kill".—Policeman Bauer, of the Fourth precinct, denies the published statement that he "shot and killed" the lives of several "nigger" people by firing his pistol at Sixth and C streets northwest yesterday afternoon. In company with Policeman Knapp he was trying to arrest a man named "Big" Tom, who was wanted for the large sum of $10 from Thomas Evans. Woolly resisted arrest by drawing an oyster knife on the policeman. He then dashed at the officer and was fired three shots. They were not aimed at the fleeing man, but high in the air, the officer says.

The Kneading Case.—John R. Proctor, a security guard, was arrested yesterday, and delivered an address before the National Geographic Society at National Hall, this evening, upon "The Kneading Case." Admission will be 10c for members and 25c for the general public. It is announced that the office of the secretary of the society, Mr. Everett Hayden, is now at No. 1515 H street.

Escape of an Aged Prisoner.—Edward Brady, a seventy-year-old prisoner at the workhouse, made his escape yesterday, and the officers of that institution are looking high and low for him. When last seen, he was wearing a blue coat and a blue hat, and was carrying a cane. He was seen in the Congressional Cemetery scanning the inscriptions on grave stones.

Thanks to the Public Press.—At the monthly meeting of the Seafarers and Children's Aid Society, January 15, it was voted that an expression of thanks from the society be sent through the daily press of the city to those who so generously contributed in the carrying out of the Christmas dinner for the seafarers and children of the home; also to the press, which gave valuable assistance in publishing daily accounts of the progress of events, in addition to substantial gifts of money to the worthy and interesting cause.
